5. Legal Release & Notice of Copyright: All digital photos are copyrighted to and remain the property of FAB Photobooth, which retains the exclusive license and reproduction rights for use in promotional and advertising venues. It is ILLEGAL to copy or reproduce (digitally, photographically, with the assistance of a third party lab, or by any other unspecified means) these photographs elsewhere without the Photographer's express written permission. Violators of this Federal Law will be subject to its civil and criminal penalties, and FAB Photobooth will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law. By utilizing the photobooth services of FAB Photobooth, the client releases all digital images to be used in marketing collateral materials, magazine ads, and any other future promotion or publication purposes not specified here. Clients further grant the right and permission to use and/or publish said digital images, either in original or computer-altered format, in conjunction with client's own or a fictitious name, in any reproduction through any media for any purpose, forever. Clients release and discharge FAB Photobooth, and/or its representatives and affiliates, in whole or in part, from and against any liability and harm as a result of any use of said digital photos, or any alteration which may occur intentionally or otherwise, in the reproduction of the finished product, its publication or distribution. This copyright excludes anyone except FAB Photobooth from making identical or substantially similar copies of the work, from creating adaptations or derivatives of the original work, from re-selling the work in any way, and from displaying the work publicly or as a for-profit marketing/advertising technique.
6. I / we, the undersigned Contracting Party, hereby warrant that I am / we are competent to contract in my / our own name(s). I / we confirm that I / we have read the herein agreement prior to its execution and I / we are fully familiar with the contents thereof. This agreement shall be binding upon us and our heirs, legal representatives and assigns. And, we certify that we have received a complete copy of this agreement with all blank lines completed.
